

Grammar Poster Set

Common Nouns
Proper Nouns
Pronouns
Irregular Nouns
Action Verbs
Adjectives

Perfect for writing centers
and writer's workshop binders!

Created by Lindsay Flood © 2012
<http://primarypolkadots.blogspot.com>

Common Noun

A general (not specific) person, place, or thing.
It is not written with a capital letter.

Example:

The girl went to school the other day.

My teacher's birthday is next month.

The store sells a lot of soft drinks.

Proper Noun

A specific person, place, or thing.
It is written with a capital letter.

Example:

Jaylen went to Smith Elementary on Monday.

Mrs. Jones' birthday is in February.

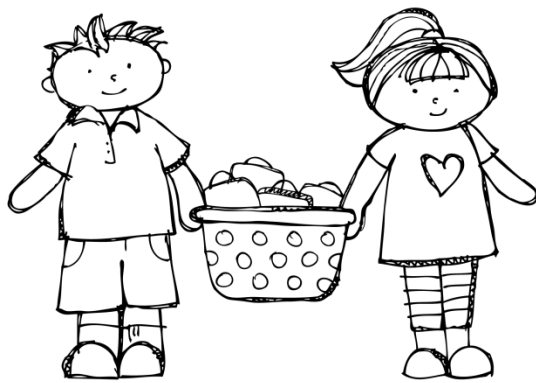

Winn-Dixie sells a lot of Coca-Cola and Sprite.

Pronouns

Pronouns replace nouns.

List of Pronouns:

he	you
she	me
it	mine
they	us
them	we
their	her
him	I

Examples:

My mom and dad went shopping.
They went shopping.

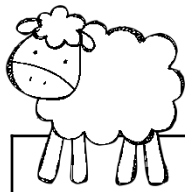

David drove to the store.
He drove to the store.

Jack threw the ball to the dog.
He threw the ball to it.

Irregular Nouns

Irregular nouns are plural nouns. Their endings may change by adding letters or taking away letters.

Sometimes a singular noun and plural noun look the same, and that makes them irregular.

Irregular Nouns

Singular (one thing)	Plural (more than one thing)
mouse	mice
shelf	shelves
leaf	leaves
sheep	sheep
deer	deer
fish	fish
scissors	scissors
woman	women
tomato	tomatoes
watch	watches
calf	calves
class	classes

Action Verbs

Action verbs show an action of a noun.

Think?

- Can I do this with my body?
- Can an animal do this with their body?
- Can an object move this way?
- Does this show movement or action?
- Can I do this with my brain?

Examples:

The rooster crowed at 6 a.m.!

Afterwards, the farmer and his wife rolled out of bed.

Their daughter Sally stood and thought about what she would wear.

Adjective

An adjective is a describing word.

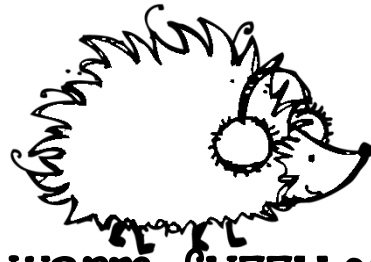

An adjective describes a noun.

It tells how many and what kind of something.

Think?

- Does this word tell how many?
- Does this word tell what kind?
- Does this word tell which one?

Examples:

The pokey porcupine wore warm, fuzzy ear muffs.

Last night, we ate three pizzas and drank fizzy sodas.

I live in a yellow house with a green roof and red shutters. We live next to a large farm that has five brown horses.

The pink, furry bear is mine.

Thank you!

Thank you for purchasing this from my store! Every time you purchase something from my store, you help support our adoption from Ethiopia!

Graphics – Melonheaz {TpT}, KPM Doodles {Etsy & Teacher's Notebook}, Creative Clips {TpT} Digiwebstudio.com

Fonts – Kevin & Amanda, Sweet Fonts {Sandra Matamadas – TpT} & KG Fonts {TpT – CU License Purchased}

Questions? Comments?

Lindsay Flood

<http://primarypolkadots.blogspot.com>

lindsaydflood@gmail.com

*STOP by my blog and follow me for some great freebies!

