- Minutes: Motion: Trish Mar
Second: Wendy van Deth
Motioned carried
- Principal's Report:
- Welcomed attendees.
 - Meet the Teacher night on Wednesday 22nd.
 - Classes: some changes in Grade 7; no class has over 30 students and no illegalities. There are some classes with up to 5 special needs students, but we did get some EA funding.
 - Thursday 30th September – C4C (Cops for Cancer) Tour de Rock will be at Bayside School. Fiver Fever – collecting $5 (or any spare change) for the cause.
 - Our canteen supervisor moved to Stelly's School. Job has been posted. Canteen broke even last year.
 - Staff changes: it will be approximately 2-4 weeks before the new staff website is up and running.
- President's Report:
- Smile Cards sent home to each family, but existing cards are reusable.
 - Meet the teacher night preparations: this year food vendors available from 6pm. Bake sale for Quebec Trip. Gather in the Gym at 7pm.
 - We will be fundraising for electronic boards for each classroom.
- Vice President's Report: Nothing to Report
- Treasurer's Report:
- Account summary and balances.
 - Gaming report ready to send.
 - Working with administration to ensure that funds allocated from last year find their way to the intended people.

- COPACS: COPACS has no executive. If a President and Treasurer cannot be found, then it will be disbanded. Heather Tomalty will represent Bayside School and attend the meeting on 7th October.
- CPF:
- Magazine Drive 29th September – 15th October, but it is available online all year. This is the only fundraiser for CPF.
 - Grade 7 parent organized Quebec trip Spring 2011. Financial assistance from government and other agencies is being sought. CPF helps. Heather Tomalty is one of the trip's fundraising coordinators.
- Pizza Day: Cindy Bates is the coordinator. First Pizza Day is Thursday 14th October. Bayside PAC makes $9.00 profit per pizza. Leftover pizza is donated to the canteen for kids. Discussion to give the last of the Tru Value gift cards for juice boxes for vaccination clinic, and supplies for pizza day.
Motion: Wendy Seward
Second: Trish Mar
