- Approval of Minutes: Motion: Ina Smith – with amendment to change request from Mr McCully from $50 to $500
Second: Trish Mar
Motioned carried
- Principal's Report:
- Read Society Sunday afternoon event offered by the Sooke School District. Sunday, January 30th 1-5pm at Ruth King Elementary
 - Hoops for Hope – Bayside will not be participating as we have done so many fundraisers already.
 - Learning through Loss is being offered at Royal Oak Middle School – contact Monica Braniff should you wish to participate.
 - Healthy Food initiative needs us to address the large chocolate milk being offered on Pizza Day, as well as the fact that whole wheat crusts need to be offered as well.
- Vice Principal's Report: Nothing to report
- President's Report:
- Request to Administration to allow better exposure of the PAC information in the Bayside Newsletter. Shirley Elm agreed to see what could be done.
- Vice President's Report: Nothing to Report
- Treasurer's Report:
- Distributed Balance Sheet and Income Statement.
 - Pizza Day – new system with coordinator making the bank deposit is working out very well.
 - An adjustment to the gaming account has been made to reflect an amount of $15.00 instead of the $105.00 reported by the previous treasurer.
- COPACS:
- Apologies for absence, and unable to attend the January COPACS meeting.
- CPF:
- Apologies for absence.
- Old Business: Wireless in schools. Article available on District website to read pro's and con's. On Saturday, 22nd January at Lochside Elementary there is a Wireless Technical Information Session.

New Business:

- Ken Bergeron has approached the PAC to ask for parent volunteers to supervise the students during the Friday afternoon recycling rinse, sort and bag. Nancy Borden will send an email to parents and a request will be made in the PAC section of the newsletter.
- Grade 8 vs Staff Hockey Game. Shirley and Monica reported looking at new ways to involve those students who do not attend school on this day.
- Tech Ed room has been closed by WCB as it does not meet safety requirements. This is a temporary close but does affect those students who have Tech Ed this term. Letters were sent home with students concerned explaining the subsequent grading position.
- Funding request from Eric Stoehr for $200.00 - $400.00 for volley balls.
Motion to give $400.00 for new volley balls: Wendy van Deth
Second: Ina Smith
Motion Carried
