

young photographers WORKSHOP

April 18 to May 16, 2020 in Sidney

Interested in Photography?

The new photographers GALLERY in Sidney is presenting a five (5) weekend workshop series where young photographers, ages 10 to 18, can explore, learn and work with experienced local photographers to improve their photo making and presentation skills. Focus of the workshops will be on creativity, exploration, discovery and fun.

Workshop sessions are held each Saturday in and around Sidney, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm and include instruction and a 2-hour photo shoot. After 4 Saturday sessions, young photographers have the opportunity to display 3 of their own best, personally judged works in a week long exhibit at the new photographers GALLERY in Sidney.

Workshops are limited to 10 young photographers and participants may be accompanied by one parent or guardian if they wish.

Participants will learn:

Camera basics and techniques for taking creative photographs.
What to look for, how to see, perceive, compose and capture images of interest.
How to prepare a standard photographic presentation.

Requirements:

Any type of camera and familiarity with its use; includes smart phones and tablets.
Suitable clothing and footwear for outdoor activities, rain or shine.
Knapsack for your camera gear, snack and water bottle.
A soft cloth to keep your camera and lens, dry and clean.
A keen interest in nature, street scenes, boats, cars, beaches, pets or people.

Instructors include:

Peter Ramos • Christy Grinton • Helen B. Watt • Sandy McElroy • Grant Irvine
David McCoy • Nancy Brown-Schembri • Alan Kohut • Glenn Wainman
