

Social Structure in the Middle Ages Video

Ye Name _____

Date _____

Ye Div _____

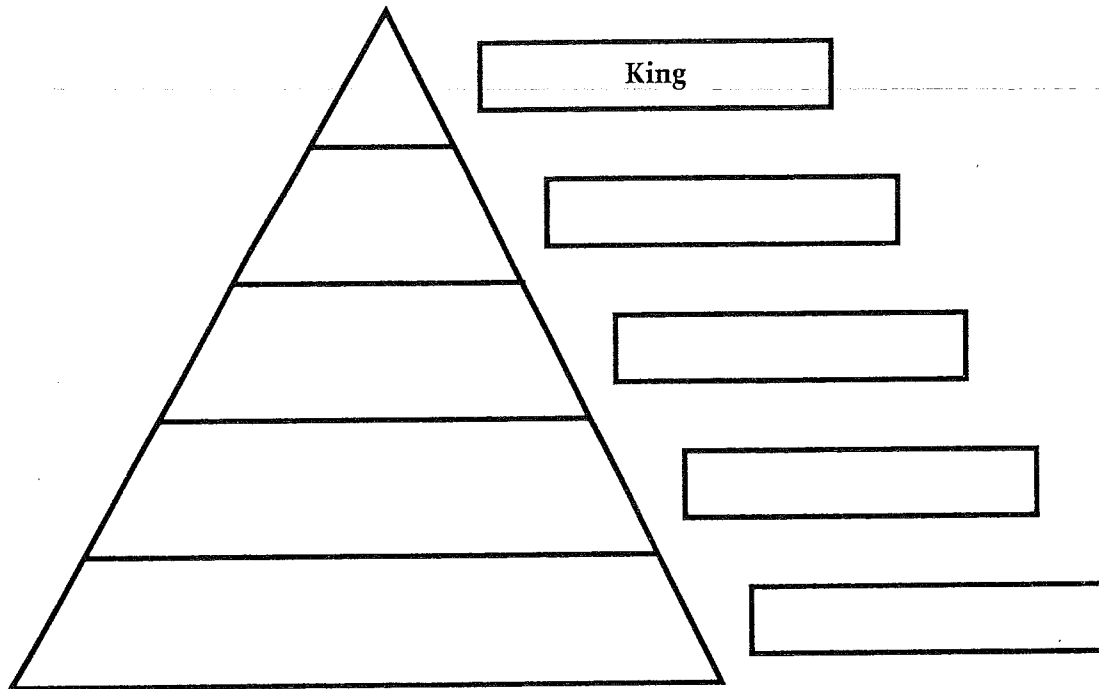

Video Questions: Answer in Full sentences on a seperate sheet of paper.

1. Who was William the Conqueror?
2. Define LORDS and VASSALS.
 - b) What was the relationship between these two groups of people?
3. What is a celebration of homage?
4. Why was it important to have land during the Middle Ages?
5. What was a fief? Provide Examples.
6. List some examples of services provided by vassals.
7. What happened if the feudal relationship was broken off?
8. Describe the role of women during the Middle Ages?
 - b) What was the primary responsibility of women during the Middle Ages?
9. Who was William Marshall?
 - b) What was interesting about his vassalage?
10. What was an effigy and what might it tell us about Medieval people?
11. What was a manor? Who lived on manors during the Middle Ages?
12. Describe the role of serfs in the Middle Ages.
13. Explain the role of the church in the Middle Ages.

ACTIVITY SHEET 2-1

THE FEUDAL PYRAMID

The pyramid represents numbers of people and the amount of power or control held by each group in medieval society. Using the information from the text, write the name of the groups of people at each level of the pyramid. Then write explanations of the responsibilities and obligations of each group in the chart below.

	Responsibilities	Obligations
King		