

Diary during the Black Death

Pretend you live on an English manor in 1349.

1) Write an account of what happened in your community as a result of the Black Death.

2) Your account, which will appear in diary form, will contain entries for a period of six months or more, and will give details about the social and economic effects of the plague.

3) Your first entry should start with life on the manor before the plague arrives. Entries will be highly descriptive using many adjectives.

4) The entries will outline the progression and impact of the Black Death on your community, remember to provide specific details.

Consult pages 161 – 168 of your text and your fill in the blank worksheet.
