

Criteria for Diary of a ...

TASK: Write a 5 - 10 entry diary from the perspective of an object or animal. Use humour while writing about the objects fears, dreams, relationships, likes / dislikes, and true facts.

CRITERIA:

Self Teacher

- | | | |
|-----|-----|--|
| ___ | ___ | Title page includes title, illustration and author's name. |
| ___ | ___ | Includes 5-10 entries. |
| ___ | ___ | Each entry is at least one paragraph (4-5 sentences). |
| ___ | ___ | Entries include true facts and characteristics about object / animal. |
| ___ | ___ | Includes objects fears, dreams, relationships, likes / dislikes, life events |
| ___ | ___ | Uses appropriate humour. |
| ___ | ___ | Written from the perspective of your character. |
| ___ | ___ | All writing is in pen (no pencil marks). |
| | | |
| ___ | ___ | Starts with a BANG! |
| ___ | ___ | Everything ties together and you can follow it easily. Builds to the good parts. |
| ___ | ___ | At the end it feels finished and makes the reader think. |
| ___ | ___ | Reader can picture it by reading the words. Uses descriptive verbs and words. |
| ___ | ___ | Sentences begin in different ways. Some are short and some are long. |
| ___ | ___ | Sounds good as you read it. Easy to read aloud. |
| ___ | ___ | COPS (Capitalization, Organization, Punctuation, Spelling) |
| | | |
| ___ | ___ | At least one illustration per entry. |
| ___ | ___ | Illustrations are colourful and creative. |
| ___ | ___ | Illustrations show thought, care and effort. |
| ___ | ___ | Illustrations fill up whole space given. |
| ___ | ___ | Handed in on time |

I think I deserve a ___ because _____
